Commission Meeting Presentation

15 May 2025 Clover Lane Station

George L. Zimmerman

HAVFR Spokesman

1. DISASTER AVERTED

Thanks to the quick and appropriate response from Company 79 and a long list of other 1st Responders, a local disaster was certainly averted. The efforts, skills, and talents of the responders mitigated the looming downtown disaster in a timely fashion. The Volunteer organization was proud to support the emergency incident by turning out 11 members, totaling 60.5 hours of manpower. Thanks to all involved for protecting the community and obtaining a great outcome against a threatening situation.

2. HONORING OUR HEROES

We will be supporting the Community Hero Celebration this Sunday @5:00pm @St. Marks Church on Charles Street in Hanover. The event will honor Fire, EMS, Police, Military, and Veterans.

Lots to do: Bands, Barbershop Quartets, Emergency Equipment, Ice Cream and FUN! Concert @ 7:00pm. No charge for this event.

3. HALF-CENTURY CREW MEMBER LUNCHEON

On Saturday, April 26th, 31 of our members were honored as “Half Century Crew Members” at a luncheon held at Bay City Restaurant. Each honoree was invited to bring a guest, and was presented a Certificate of Golden Achievement and a Golden Half Century Crew Member Lapel Pin. This event was the first ever distinction for members with 50 years of service or more.

Special guests who participated included Retired Fire Commissioner James Roth, HAVFR Commission Chairman C. Michael Newman, Deputy Chief Joe Wysocki, and HAVFR President Jeffrey Spielman. Commissioner Roth and President Spielman were also recipients of the Half Century Crew Member distinction.

Mr. Lester Bankert was also presented with a Proclamation from the Pennsylvania House of Representatives recognizing Mr. Bankert’s 64 years of ACTIVE volunteer service! Stephanie Jarbeck presented the Proclamation on behalf of PA Representative Kate Klunk.

4. Chicken BBQ

Just a reminder...

The long-awaited Chicken BBQ dinner will be available on May 31st right here. Chef 79 is waiting to see your smiling face in the pick-up line. Please consider supporting your volunteers. Tickets are available tonight and the day of the BBQ.
